

Is your super with HESTA? Call on HESTA to divest from mandatory detention.

HESTA, the health and community services industry superannuation fund, is at present a significant shareholder in Transfield Services, the company that runs the Australian detention centres on Nauru and Manus Island.¹ Why is HESTA using your retirement savings to help Transfield profit from the mandatory detention of asylum seekers? Join in calling on HESTA for a complete and permanent divestment from mandatory detention.

These Unions and organisations are also on the Board of HESTA:

- Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (ANMF)
- Australian Services Union (ASU)
- United Voice
- Health Services Union (HSU)
- Australian Council of Social Service

For resources on writing to HESTA and passing divestment motions: hestadivest.net

xborderoperationalmatters.wordpress.com/2015/01/23/hesta/

Get involved in the campaign:

Email: info@hestadivest.net Facebook: HESTA Divest #HESTAdivest

1. As of 27 February 2015, HESTA holds just under 5% of shares in Transfield Services with over 23.5 million shares. http://tse.live.irmau.com/IRM/Company/ShowPage.aspx/PDFs/1965-10000000/Ceasingtobeasubstantialholder

This leaflet was written and printed on Aboriginal land.